

Steven Bennett, PhD, is on the faculty of the PCC and is adjunct Associate Clinical Professor in the UNC Department of Psychiatry. He has been the President of the PCC (2016-2017) and Director of the PCC Training Programs (2013-2015). Steve is a psychologist/psychoanalyst who in 1993 established in Chapel Hill the Center for Psychological and Family Services which has focused on understanding the interrelationship between personal psychodynamics and the influence of spiritual and social values.